Zakat, Tax and Customs Authority (ZATCA)

- Award: Event: CIPS Excellence in Procurement Awards 2024
- Project / Topic: Digital supplier relationship management portal

5. BEST USE OF DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY

Recognising innovative technology projects that deliver significant results. This category is open to procurement or supply chain teams showcasing successful technology projects that have made significant business impact. Technology providers may also enter case study-led projects where they have worked in partnership with the procurement organisation. The name of the client/s must be disclosed in all entries.

Winning Topics

Government e-Marketplace (GeM)

- Event: CIPS Excellence in Procurement Awards 2021
- Project / Initiative: Digital procurement platform that drives transparency, efficiency and inclusiveness via cutting-edge digital features (including AI, machine learning, NLP, blockchain) and a unified online marketplace for procurement of goods and services by government buyers.

Safaricom PLC

- Event: CIPS Africa Excellence in Procurement and Supply Awards 2025
- Project / Initiative: The AI-powered Supply Market Analysis solution — delivering real-time supplier ecosystem insights, cost structures, trends and competitive analysis, shortening market analysis time drastically and improving procurement decision-making.

6. OUTSTANDING PEOPLE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

Recognising excellence in professional procurement capability development. This category rewards training or development programmes that have substantially raised the capability and influence of the procurement or supply chain team, leading to improved performance, results and business integration. Judges are looking for programmes that develop teams beyond traditional, technical procurement skills.

Winning companie:

- Lloyds Banking Group (LBG) – won the Outstanding People Development Programme award at the CIPS Excellence in Procurement Awards 2022.

7. PROCUREMENT TEAM OF THE YEAR – LARGE ORGANISATION

Recognising high performing procurement teams. This category rewards procurement teams who have made significant improvements to their performance and culture resulting in increased effectiveness, influence, efficiencies, savings or competitive advantage. Open to organisations with an annual turnover of AUS $50m and over.

Winning Topics

JUDGING PROCESS

The CIPS Futures Europe Conference and Awards in Procurement & Supply Awards receive entries from diverse organisations and sectors across Europe. We carefully select judges with relevant knowledge and experience to ensure fair and expert evaluation of all submissions. To ensure we are transparent with our processes we wanted to provide you with more information about the role of our judges and the judging process itself.

Our judges will:

- Sign confidentiality agreements and not share or discuss information from the submissions with anyone outside of their judging team
- Draw on their knowledge and experience to assess entries in their given categories. Check all entries meet the correct category criteria and re-allocate into correct categories if necessary
- Declare any conflicts of interest and will be removed from judging or viewing categories where these are identified
- Provide scores and written comments on all shortlisted entrants and award winners
- Draw on their knowledge and experience to assess entries in their given categories

Transparent and Fair: Access to the entries and judging system is limited to our judges and the awards administration team only. Entries are open to both CIPS members and non-members. Sponsors are not permitted to judge the CCIPS Futures Europe Conference and Awards.

TOP TIPS FROM THE JUDGES FOR APPLICANTS

1. Tell the story behind the numbers

Results matter, but judges want to understand the journey. Don't just list outcomes; explain the challenge you faced, the decisions you made, and why your approach made a difference. Context is everything.

2. Show your impact on people, not just process

Procurement excellence isn't only about cost savings or efficiency gains. Highlight how your work influenced stakeholders, built capability within your team, or contributed to a broader organisational goal. Human impact is compelling.

3. Be specific and back it up

Vague claims are easy to overlook. Use real examples, real figures, and real outcomes to demonstrate your achievements. The strongest submissions leave no doubt about what was accomplished and why it matters.

Lastly, do not forget that we were not there and don't know your business, project, or outcomes like you do, make it real and take time to paint the picture.

4. Focus on clear implementation

Focus on clearly describing the concrete procedural, organisational, and contractual actions taken. Explain how the strategy, goal, or idea was translated into practical steps and successfully implemented.

5. Explain the problem and the impact

Be clear on what problems were you trying to solve, how did you achieve it, and what were the measurable impact and outcomes. The strongest entries are clear, honest, and evidence-led – not glossy or jargon-heavy.

6. Demonstrate discipline and measurement

Focus on outcomes, be clear on the problem or challenge you were solving for and demonstrate the disciplines or methodologies you followed or implemented. On a daily basis you are measured by delivery and impact, a solid entry should carry the same weight as your work.

HOW TO ENTER?

1

All entries must be submitted online via the entry system ('Login/Basket'). Log in early to familiarise yourself with the submission process

2

All information needs to be submitted via the submission portal into the text boxes provided

3

The only documents that you may upload are any supporting materials

4

Prepare your content in advance and paste it into the portal text fields. Ensure the text has no formatting, bullet points or images

5

Note you can pay early and then have until the standard deadline to submit your entry details

6

Each entry must include a title and a 100-word executive summary. This summary will be published if shortlisted, so please avoid confidential information
